Text 11

Hi, Mike. I am writing to tell you something about my family! I have a really happy family though my parents are quite strict with me. They have made many rules for me. First, I must finish my homework on time every day. Second, I can't play any computer games. And one more rule, I have to come back home on time. My parents think these rules are good for me. What do you think of these rules?

Yours,
David
